The Bangor & Aropstook railroad has received a new soow plow from the Portland company. It was similar to those in use on the Maine Central but much wider, so wide, in fact, that it had to be hauled through sidings at many stations as it would not clear the depoplatforms. At Danyille Junction the platform was torn up by it when it passed and a large part of the paint and varpleh was soraped from one side. It is plow No. 8.

OBITUARY. The family of Hon. Albert W. Paine on Saturday morning received the and ews of the death of his brother, Rev.

Timothy Otis Paine, of East Bridge water, Mass. The news was not wholly unexpected as he had for several days been critically ill at the Boston Genera Hospital to which place he was removed by the advice of his physician for the purpose of having a very dangerous operation performed. Many of our older citizens will well recollect him as a citizen of Bangor some forty-live years ago when he was teacher in our schools and practiced as an artist. He was : graduate of Waterville College in the has of 1847 which college in 1875 conterred upon him the degree of LL. D. Soon after his reside ce in Bangot he commenced study for the ministry of the New or Swedenborgian church and in 1864 was installed as pastor of the East Bridgewater Society, which position be has ever since occupied until within a fluancial embarrassment of the few months when his failing health com-& Morse Lumber Company, of period him to resign.
